HUNS BROKEN BY THEIR DEFEAT ON SOISSONS-RHEIMS FRONT PREPARING TO MAKE DEFENSIVE FIGHT ON YPRES-RHEIMS FRONT

CONGRESS IS GIVEN NEW BILL ON DRAFT

Reference Made to Military Committee.

Planned to Have Consideration Immediately After Summer Recess Is Over.

Crowder Makes Estimates on Man Power New Bill Will Produce.

Notes Serious Questions That Are Pressing.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 5.—The new administration man power bill extending the selective service act to all men between 18 and 45 inclusive and authorizing the President to call such persons into military service, was introduced in both Houses of Congress today. It was referred to the Military Committee. Leaders planned to have the measure considered immediately after the summer recess is over the last of this month.

Provost Marshal General Crowder, in a statement, suggested September 5th as the date for a national registration for men within the ages.

Weekly registration of youths attaining the age of 21 during the next few weeks was proposed by General Crowder, as the only means of obtaining the 200,000 wanted for September. This would be done by Presidential proclamation and add about 80,000 to the available list.

After carrying out the program for July and August General Crowder pointed out that only 100,000 of the 1918 registrants would be left on September 1st for subsequent calls.

"The second and more difficult question," General Crowder's statement added "is how we can supply on time the 150,000 men required for each of the months of October, November and December.

Between the ages of 32 and 45 General Crowder estimated there are 10,028,973 males and estimates the net effectives at 501,236. Between 18 and 20 he estimates the number at 3,171,671, of which the net effectives would total 1,797,609.

6650 OHIO MEN LEAVE THIS MONTH FOR CAMP TAYLOR

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., August 5.—State draft headquarters today announced that under the August draft call Ohio will send 6,650 men to camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, Ky., August 26th.

Most of the men to be called this month will be youths who registered in June this year, as Class One registered in 1917 practically is exhausted.

A call also was made for 327 negroes to go to Camp Taylor on August 23.

TANK STEAMER SUNK SUNDAY OFF N. S. COAST

Captain and Thirteen Members of Crew Missing.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 5.—The American tank steamer, O. B. Jennings, was sunk by a German submarine yesterday 100 miles off the Virginia coast and 30 survivors of the crew have been brought to Norfolk, Va., the Navy Department was today informed.

The captain and one boat containing 13 members of the crew are missing.

TWO SUBMARINES IN WEST ATLANTIC

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 5.—The sinking of the tanker O. B. Jennings, yesterday revealed the presence of at least two German submarines on this side of the Atlantic.

The second raider has been operating off Nova Scotia and nearby waters for several days.

Radio calls for assistance from the Jennings yesterday brought the first information that a submarine was in the waters where the first raid was carried out in May and June. Patrol boats rushed to the assistance of the tanker, but it had been sent to the bottom when they reached the spot.

Steps to deal with this latest raid have been taken by the Navy Department and patrol boats and seaplanes already are searching the coastal waters.

49 ON BOARD

By Associated Press Dispatch.

There were 49 aboard the tanker O. B. Jennings, according to the records of the Standard Oil Company here. Officials of the company received word today that the chief officer and 31 men had been landed here, which would leave 17 men, including the captain, unaccounted for.

U. S. TROOPERS WIN GLORIOUS CLOSE-UP FIGHT

Prussian Guards Who Stood Their Ground Punished Almost to a Man.

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, August 5.—The Americans covered themselves with glory in the hand-to-hand fighting in the streets of Fismes yesterday when they captured that German base.

The fighting is said to have been the bitterest of the entire war, the Prussian guards asking no quarter and being bayoneted or clubbed to death as they stood by their machine guns.

PRINCE'S TOY

Paris, August 5.—(Associated Press Cable) — The long range bombardment of the Paris region was resumed this morning.

While Conducting Hurried Retreat Toward the Aisne.

Germans Have Abandoned Good Defensive Positions in Picardy Near Amiens.

Vesle Is Cleared of Enemy Troops and Fismes the Great Military Base—Is in Hands of Americans.

Great Quantities of Stores and Ammunition Taken by the French and American Forces.

(By War Editor of The Associated Press)

Weakened by the defeat suffered on the Soissons-Rheims front the Germans apparently are preparing to assume the defensive on the front from Ypres to Rheims.

While conducting their retirement toward the Aisne the Germans have abandoned good defensive positions in Picardy east of Amiens.

The movements north and south of the Somme have been only local in character, but are an indication that the German command is aware of the danger of an allied attack north of the present battle front.

Between Soissons and Rheims the Vesle virtually has been cleared of enemy troops and Fismes is in the hands of the Americans.

West of Rheims the French made important gains and in the region of Soissons the French are north of the Aisne.

Enemy resistance has been growing stronger from Fismes east to Rheims. However, the Vesle is in flood and as large swamps line its course west of Rheims it is possible the resistance may be due to the inability of the Germans to move to the north bank.

Allied troops having flattened out the Marne pocket, have not advanced so rapidly during the last 48 hours.

The leading units keep in close touch with the Germans, however.

There is little doubt in the allied capitals that the German Crown Prince will retire to the north of the Aisne.

British troops now hold Hamel and Derrancourt, on the west bank of the Aisne and the Germans are to the east of the river.

From Mesnil-St. Georges west of Montdidier to Braches, the Germans are retiring across the Aisne river.

Their retrograde movement already has averaged two miles on a seven-mile front.

The French hold Braches, have penetrated into Hargicourt and are on the outskirts of Courtemanche.

Great quantities of ammunition and guns have been taken by the French, British and American troops south of the Vesle. Prisoners captured by the Americans total 8,400.

HOG ISLAND'S FIRST VESSEL IS LAUNCHED

AMERICAN CASUALTY IN SEVERE FIGHTING NOW BEING RECEIVED

Daily Lists Reported by General Pershing Contain No Total Estimates.

Today's List of 407 Names is Largest Number Reported in a Single Day.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, August 5.—The casualties among the American troops in severe fighting in which they have been engaged since July 15th, when the German offensive was launched and halted at the Marne are now being reported in the daily lists from General Pershing, though no estimate of the total has yet been received. RESISTANCE OF THE HUN STIFFENS UP ON AISNE

(Associated Press Cable)

With the French Army in France, (1:30 p. m.)—German resistance along the banks of the Aisne and Vesle river is growing more stubborn.

Allied patrols which have crossed these rivers have met with stern resistance.

In the neighborhood of Muizon on the south side of the Vesle the Germans fought fiercely last evening before they were forced back.

The battle was especially severe around the Vauts farm and the adjacent woods.

WHAT THE Y. M. C. A. IS DOING IN THE WAR

40,000 British Y. M. C. A. Workers. The British Y. M. C. A. now has more than 40,000 workers with the armies of the empire, says a Y. M. C. A. bulletin. King George and Queen Mary are tremendously interested in the work and recently told Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the American movement, that without the work of the association it was difficult to see how the war could go on.

Margaret Mayo Over There
Margaret Mayo, the actress, will soon make her first appearance since her marriage to Edgar Selwyn, the theatrical producer, on the Y. M. C. A. trench circuit in France. "Some-where in America" is the title of a skit which she has written and in which she will play for the boys in khaki.

Wall Street Men in "Y" Service
The bulls and the bears are coming out of Wall Street nowadays and enlisting in Y. M. C. A. service overseas, according to a report just received here. Nearly 100 men have been secured from the New York stock exchange and the financial district for Red Triangle work abroad.

France Likes The Y. M. C. A.
The French government has appropriated the money to build and equip 1,400 buildings similar to the "Y" huts used by the American soldiers. There will be at least one American secretary in each Foyer du Soldat, as the French huts are called. About 500 of these buildings are said to be in operation. Italy also is erecting similar huts for her own troops.

MOSQUITO PEST BECOMING ACTIVE

The mosquito pest, which has not greatly disturbed the peaceful slumbers of local citizens the past year or two, is appearing once more, and is making the nights miserable for a host of citizens.

So far there has been no attempt to destroy the pest by the application of oil, etc., on stagnant pools and other breeding places of the mosquitoes.

75 PYTHIANS AND FRIENDS MAKE TRIP

About seventy-five Knights of Pythias and members of Pythian families motored to Springfield, Sunday, where they spent part of the day in beautiful Snyder Park, after which they visited the Old Folks' Home, of the Pythian lodge, and the Pythian Orphan's Home.

All carried picnic dinners and these were spread in Snyder Park and the repast enjoyed as only a picnic dinner can be. A committee of Knights went to the Old Folks' Home and brought back George Smith and wife, formerly of this city, who partook of the picnic dinner.

Another committee went to the orphan's home and escorted little Josephine Sturgeon, daughter of the late

Chas. Sturgeon, back to the big feast. About two o'clock in the afternoon the entire party visited the Pythian Orphan's Home and the Old Folks' Home, receiving courteous treatment at the hands of the superintendents, and being greatly pleased with the surroundings of the two homes.

HEAT TOO MUCH FOR BRICK STREET

The hot sun a day or two ago became a little too much for the brick paving on North street, near the Buck Green houses, with the result that the street, literally bowed up its back and a section several feet in width and extending entirely across the street was damaged.

The street, because no allowance had been made for expansion, burst when the rays of the sun created an unusual pressure by reason of expansion, and it will be necessary to replace the paving and probably leave out a course of brick over part of the street.

AZTEC SURVIVOR HERE RECRUITING

A traveling naval recruiting party headed by C. W. Whitney, chief quartermaster U. S. N., a survivor of the Aztec, the first armed American ship to be sunk by an enemy submarine, will make an address at the Wonder-land theater on Monday night, relating his experiences.

His address will be followed by a one reel picture "Sea War and Sea Fighters" showing life in the Navy as it really is and the advantage of this branch of service over any other.

The Dunlap Pony Company of Greenfield, Ohio, will offer at public sale at the Chautauqua Park Pavilion on Monday, August 12 at 11 a. m. 100 choice ponies, to be sold to the highest bidder.

A liberal portion of the purchase price will be donated to the Red Cross Unit selected by the purchaser. The Red Cross Unit receiving the greatest amount of money from the sale will be given as a prize a handsome Shetland Pony which can be used for any purpose the Unit desires. Help your local Red Cross.

All visitors will be entertained in the afternoon at free picture shows at The Lyric and Royal Theatres. Bring your dinners. Spend the day and give your children a treat. Children purchasing ponies and not able to pay full amount will be given time to complete the payments.

UNION TOWNSHIP IS ORGANIZED FOR THE S. S. CAMPAIGN

Despite the excessive heat Sunday afternoon there was a good attendance at the township Sunday school convention at Grace church.

After an opening song and prayer by Rev. Cherrington, G. E. Groves was chosen chairman of the meeting. Miss Ada Woodward then sang beautifully an appropriate solo, "Your Flag and Mine."

The first address was made by Dr. Carey Persinger in which he showed the constructive part the Sunday Schools have had in molding the ideals of our nation and the opportunity they offer for the highest type of patriotism in developing the leadership of tomorrow. It was a timely address.

Mr. Henry Brownell then spoke up on the subject: "How to Make Our Sunday Schools Bigger and Better." In a thorough thoughtful business-like manner he showed importance of comradeship, organization, consecrated teachers, and the co-operation of parents, in the securing of attendance and the doing of efficient work.

The audience then listened to a solo impressively sung by Miss Dorothy Parrett.

The next speaker was Mr. C. R. Lisle, the county president. His subject was: "Some Things Our Campaign Ought to Accomplish in Fayette County." In a forceful manner he stated the purpose was to give Sunday School its proper emphasis, to increase the number systematically studying the word of God, to do more efficient work, and to win souls to Christ.

The report of the nominating committee consisting of Rev. Gage, James Minshall and Sherman Reeder, was then made and the following officers were chosen for Union Township:

President, G. E. Groves; vice president, Mrs. Eva Pen; secretary-treasurer, Miss Daisy Cockerill; adult superintendent, Henry Engle; secondary superintendent, Miss Lillian Barnes; Home department, Harry Wood; temperance, Mrs. J. N. Baughn; Missionary, Miss Marcella Griffith; elementary superintendent, Miss Emma Davis; visitation, M. E. Hitchcock; superintendent teacher training, Prof. Wm. McClain.

The meeting was closed by prayer by Rev. D. J. Rejy.

DO NOT BELIEVE CASUALTY RUMORS

Since it has been announced officially that the Rainbow Division has been in the thick of the fighting on the Marne front during the past three weeks, absurd reports of all kinds have been in circulation, and many calls for correct information have been received at The Herald office.

One of these rumors was that M. Company had been annihilated. There has been no official report, to indicate anything of the kind.

That there will be casualties in most units forming the Rainbow Division, is practically certain, but the extent of these casualties has not been announced, and may not be for many days to come.

Persons circulating reports of which they are not certain are guilty of spreading German propaganda, and should be very careful what they repeat when they obtain it from unreliable source.

WASTING WHEAT BY WAGON BOXES

That a vast amount of wheat has been and is being wasted by the hauling in wagon beds and boxes not entirely leak proof, is evidenced by the large amount of wheat scattered along the highways and streets as the grain is being marketed.

Most of the farmers are careful that there are no leaks in the wagon beds or boxes used in moving the wheat to market, but the beds on top of the platform ladders are sometimes filled too full with the result that the grain is shaken over the top.

Monday morning a load of wheat passed up Fayette street, and the grain was falling over the top of the bed or box, so that several pounds of the precious grain was shaken out upon the street in a very short distance. The driver was unconscious of the loss being suffered.

PREDICTION WAS NEVER FULFILLED

CHILD WELFARE Whooping Cough

The State Board of Health is determined to enforce the laws of Ohio in regard to contagious diseases.

During the month of July the infant mortality of Ohio was greatly increased, and the number of deaths from whooping cough was much more than usual. According to the laws of the state of Ohio, Whooping Cough must be quarantined. The members of the family not having this disease may go on the streets, but the patient himself must be kept from the other members of the family and is allowed on the street only in company with an older person, who must not take him in the crowded sections of the city, but can take him for exercise in the less frequented portions of the city and must not allow any other child to come within five feet of the patient. Carelessness alone has caused this increase in Ohio's death list at a time when the government is bending every energy to save the nation's children. The State Board of Health considers such carelessness a lack of patriotism and has asked the co-operation of the Child Welfare department of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense, to see that the law is enforced.

If anyone in Fayette County knows of an unquarantined case of whooping cough, he will please report it to the health officer, Mr. J. W. Byron or to Mrs. D. H. Van Winkle, chairman of the Woman's Committee or to Mrs. C. Graham Beckel, chairman of the Woman's Committee.

TO THE PUBLIC

It seems to me that anyone seeking the favor of a public office should have some definite idea as to what he can do to give value received on the deal. Any success that I have made has been as a farmer, and if you feel that I can serve you acceptably with the experience gained along that line I ask your support.

If I can serve you better than some other in any line it will be in helping to farm your farm more profitably in these strenuous times when every call is for more products and yet more. Great Victories Won

The second battle of the Marne continues to rage with unabated fury and the success of the allied armies, with Franco-American forces carrying on the major portion of the attack, continue to thrill the allied nations.

Instead of slowing up and coming to a dead halt some days ago as, practically all, the experts predicted it would, the great battle has increased in intensity and in men engaged, the defeat to the German forces has grown from one of grave consequences a week ago into one of overwhelming disaster at the present time.

Beating down all opposition, setting at naught the best of German strategy, ignoring precedent established in this war, the victorious hosts of the allies have swept on and on far beyond the extreme limit set for their advance by men who have watched the war's progress closely.

Every indication warrants the conclusion that at last, ready and anxious, the allied forces have been released from restraint and allowed to assume the offensive.

The Huns have had a terrible awakening. With the coming of the American troops the whole allied army has undergone a complete change—there is a new and confident militant spirit which has swept through the ranks of that great army which has stretched along the line from the channel to Switzerland.

Rejoicing in the glorious achievements of our men in arms we must increase our store of courage for the coming of the day when the dread list of casualties comes to America.

We must be brave when the bill comes in. While our victories have been, and give promise of continuing to be, glorious we must be mindful of the inevitable.

Checking Propaganda

German propaganda in the United States has proven to be a very expensive and non-productive activity, if we are to judge from some of the revelations now being made in the preliminary hearings of the charges against Dr. Rumely and others involved in the New York newspaper "deal."

It seems to be well established now that about one and one half million dollars have been squandered by the German government in that one newspaper deal, and that is only one of many efforts to poison the minds of the American people. Failure, absolute and ignominious, resulted from the New York efforts and expenditures, and absolute failure has resulted in every other instance too.

There was a time when the propagandists seemed to be making headway in their villainous campaign and when the government seemed inefficient in its efforts to put a stop to the devilry of the paid agents of the Huns.

In dealing with that evil, however, as with every other evil of Hun creation, the American authorities proceeded cautiously and laid well their foundations.

The fangs of the Huns have been drawn out and propaganda in America has about run its course, thanks to a course of procedure which, though for a time it seemed too slow, has proved wonderfully successful in results.

Reclaiming Russia

The agreement entered into—the complete understanding reached—between the Entente nations, Japan and the United States regarding intervention in Siberia and eventually in Russia, with the purpose of releasing the Russian people from the chains of bondage which the German war lords have welded upon them, is one of the biggest developments of the past week.

Germany's duplicity and villainy in her dealings with the confiding Russian masses, delivered into her hands by the Bolsheviks, has, though seemingly promising great success, resulted in placing but an empty shell in the hands of the Huns.

Germany has failed utterly, as she was doomed to do from the start, to secure material assistance from Russia—the granaries of the Russians were empty and the millions of plodding Slavs will not become the active allies of the Hun military force. Propaganda, deceit and treachery are proving alike impotent to enroll the Russians under the banner of the Kaiser. No nation has ever yet, in all history, made an ally of another nation or another people by dealing falsely with them or by the use of force. There must be in order that an effective alliance result, a complete understanding based on truthful statements of fact and there must be sympathy and accord in every endeavor.

The tide has turned—deceit and force have played a losing game in Russia—and developments, encouraging to the armies of freedom, are the probability for the near future.

Poetry For Today

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE—1918.
 Leave me alone here, proudly, with my dead,
 Ye mothers of brave sons adventurous;
 He who once prayed: "If it be possible
 Let this cup pass" will arbitrate for us.
 Your boy with iron nerves and careless smile
 Marched gaily by and dreamed of glory's goal;
 Mine had blanched cheek, straight mouth and close-gripped hands,
 And prayed that somehow he might save his soul.
 I do not grudge your ribbon or your cross,
 The price of these my soldier, too, has paid;
 I hug a prouder knowledge to my heart,
 The mother of the boy who was afraid!
 He was a tender child, with nerves so keen
 They doubled pain and magnified the sad;
 He hated cruelty and scenes obscene
 And in all high and holy things was glad.
 And so he gave what others could not give,
 The one supreme sacrifice he made,
 A thing your brave boy could not understand;
 He gave his all because he was afraid!

"O SAY CAN YOU SEE—"

TOO MUCH BOOZE USES A SHOT GUN FACES CHARGES

Paul Simpson, colored, was taken in charge by the police, Sunday night between nine and ten o'clock, as result of his firing a shot with a shot gun in the alley back of the colored church, on N. North street, presumably as result of too much bad whiskey which the man is said to have obtained from out of town.

Simpson related two or three different stories regarding his presence in the alley near the Sallie Taylor residence, one being to the effect that he had been held up in the alley. However, a resident of the neighborhood is said to have heard the man declare he would go home and get his gun and see who was boss, after which he is said to have left the alley, later returning and discharging the shot gun down the alley.

A few minutes later Officer Murray and Fireman White, who previously had been sworn in for special police duty, appeared upon the scene. Simpson is alleged to have cocked the gun and demanded who was coming. The officers withdrew and obtaining a shot gun, caught up with Simpson some three squares from the scene of the shooting, and placed him under arrest at the point of the shot gun.

Charges of being intoxicated and disturbing the peace, and of discharging fire arms within the city limits, were placed against Simpson, who entered a plea of guilty to the first charge and was fined $30.35. Arraignment on the other charge will probably take place Tuesday.

In the meantime Mayor Dahl and the police are endeavoring to get at the bottom of the trouble and new developments are expected.

CARRIER PIGEON IS PICKED UP

Sunday evening a fine carrier pigeon arrived at the home of Mr. Hiram Clark about three miles north of this city. When Mr. Clark first observed the visitor he was feeding quietly in front of the barn. Later on it flew to the top of a shed. Mr. Clark waited for some time after it had obtained food and water for the bird to be on its way. When night came and the pigeon still stayed Mr. Clark knew the cats about the barn would destroy it before morning unless he cared for it. He then went out and picked it up, carrying it into the house.

Monday he brought it to this city and turned it over to the authorities in the hope that its home could be located.

On the right leg of the pigeon is a band bearing the following: A. J. 18 M. 5538.

AN URGENT CALL FOR TRAINED NURSES

The American troops overseas are entering more and more into the fighting and the need for trained nurses to care for the wounded has become of the utmost importance. On August 3rd Surgeon-General Gorgas issued a call to the American Red Cross to enroll 1000 nurses a week for the next two months. In order to release this great number of trained nurses from the various hospitals it is necessary that there be a reserve of student nurses to draw upon to replace these called to duty. For this reason the call for 25,000 to enroll in the Student Nurse Reserve has become more imperative. The Fayette County quota for nurses is 11. So far the number of applicants has been small. We have one more week to show our willingness to help in this great cause. Those wishing to consider the call, come to the Public Library any afternoon between three and five o'clock, and receive definite information concerning enrollment.

DRAFT AGE BILL IS PRESENTED

(American Press)
Washington, Aug. 5.—The war department's new man-power bill, extending draft ages to 18 and 45 years, was introduced in both houses of congress today.

In recommending this extension of the age limits Mr. Baker said the department had it in mind simply to get for the army the number of men which it believed necessary to defeat Germany. The secretary was not prepared to say how many that would be, nor to give any estimate as to the proportion of males between the ages of 18 and 45, inclusive, which would be found eligible. In making up the list and classes the same rules would be followed that had governed in the first draft, with the same exceptions from the first call of married men with dependents.

A strictly war profits tax, separate from all other taxes, will be pressed with renewed vigor this week in the house ways and means committee engaged in framing the $8,000,000,000 revenue bill. The position of the Democrats and Republicans who have been trying so far in the executive sessions of the committee to win over opponents of a separate war profits plan has been strengthened by President Wilson's declaration in favor of a heavy tax to reach all war profiteers and by the fact that the excess profits and income tax sections of the bill so far tentatively accepted fall short by considerably more than $1,000,000,000 of the $6,000,000,000 allotted to the two sections.

The committee has been discussing without conclusion two main war profits plans. One is a superimposed war profits tax with a maximum of 80 per cent on corporations having more than $200,000 capital, designed to reach huge corporate profits. Its author is Representative Green of Iowa. The other plan is an alternative for the excess profits to be substituted for excess profits whenever the treasury deems it likely to bring in more revenue than excess profits tax in each individual case. THIRD OF SERIES SATURDAY NIGHT

The third fire of the series occurred Saturday night about seven o'clock, when an alarm was turned in from the Pennsylvania station where fire was discovered in a box car filled with straw.

It was necessary to remove much of the straw and to saturate part of it thoroughly before all danger of further fire was removed.

It is supposed a red-hot cinder from a passing locomotive caused the fire.

BRITISH MOVING UP A BIG GUN

MOVING UP BIG GUN.

Some idea of the great difficulty experienced by the fighting men in France in moving heavy artillery and other war essentials over the marshy, shell-torn battle fields may be gained from this photograph. British soldiers are shown moving up a big gun after an advance to bring it within closer striking distance of the German lines.

CASUALTIES TOTAL 15000

(American Press)

Washington, Aug. 5.—Army and marine corps casualties reported from overseas during the week ending Sunday increased 1,431, compared with 7,050 the week before. Total casualties reported are 15,196, including Sunday's army list of 283, the largest number yet reported in a single day, and the marine list of two.

While as yet no figures on casualties in the great allied offensive, in which American troops are playing such a conspicuous part, have been received, the increase in the daily army lists undoubtedly is due in part to this fighting. The increase for the week was 1,384. The marine corps list increased only 46 for the seven days.

In the 15,196 casualties, total deaths, including 291 men lost at sea, men killed in action, died of wounds, disease, accidents and other causes, numbered 6,144—army men, 5,410; marines, 73. The wounded aggregate 8,264—army men, 7,044; marines, 220. The missing, including prisoners, total 788—army men, 710; marines, 78.

W. S. S. WILL HELP WIN THE WAR

DOWN HUN AIRPLANE WITH RIFLE BULLETS

MICHAEL FOODY

Private Michael Foody, of New York, and a member of the 165th Infantry in France, has won the novel distinction of downing a Hun airplane with a rifle bullet. It is the first feat of its kind recorded in the great war. While in the trenches Foody, who is the crack sniper of his regiment, received permission of his captain to take a crack at low-flying Hun planes who were strafing the first line trenches. He missed the first few shots, but finally one shot went true, killing the aviator in his seat and the plane came crashing to earth.

GIVE A LEAD PENCIL

Cold lead is needed by our soldiers to fight off that sneaking enemy "cad-fard"—the "black beetle" or blues—while on board transports. Lead is needed in the shape of short pencils with which the boys can write letters home. The appeal is made to stenographers who accumulate a lot of stubs, two or three inches long, too short for shorthand but just right for a soldier's pocket. The Y. M. C. A., which provides stationery for millions of soldiers, will distribute to the men on transports all pencils sent to the Y. M. C. A. warehouse, No. 126 West 23rd Street, New York.

WITH THE Y ON BATTLE FRONT

All over the war zone American soldiers are seeking religious services, often at the additional risk of their lives. They assemble in places as unusual as were the meeting places of the early Christians. No matter how dangerous the position, the American soldier always welcomes the Y. M. C. A. secretary who risks his life to reach them to hold Sunday services. A shell crater in No Man's Land was the strangest place in which a "Y" man held services.

"No Time to be Hating Each Other."

"This is no time to be hating each other for the love of God," exclaimed a Roman Catholic priest, when a newcomer from the United States remarked about his work in a Y. M. C. A. hut in England. This remark has gone up and down the American camps in France and England and typifies the spirit of Roman Catholics and Protestants alike in working for the common good of the American soldier.

Films For Fighters.

Fifteen miles of new moving picture films are shipped each week to the war zone for the entertainment of America's overseas force. This amusement on celluloid is provided by the Y. M. C. A. working with the Community Motion Picture Bureau. The pictures are shown in the Y. M. C. A. huts almost up to the very front line.

EIGHT COLORED MEN GO TO CAMP

Eight colored men out of eleven who had been notified to appear for induction into military service, left on the 9:00 o'clock B. & O. train, Monday morning, for Camp Sherman, and were in high spirits when they took their departure. Quite a number of friends assembled to bid them farewell.

The eight men who departed are: Leo Ponzo Anderson, Herbert Leslie Weaver, Hudley Cole Jr., John Lee Brandon, Walter Baker, Herman Viens, Ellis Douglas Cole, Lawrence Taylor.

The three men who failed to appear and consequently are classed as delinquents are: Herman Jones, Charles Frederick Cannon and Vernie Artis.

ATTENDS REUNION AGE NINETY-FOUR

Mr. B. E. Jacobs, who passed his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary last May, motored to Casstown, Ohio, a few days ago to attend the annual reunion of the 14th O. V. I. Only 58 former members of the regiment were in attendance.

Mr. Jacobs, who accompanied his son, Mr. Frank Jacobs, made the entire trip of over 100 miles without appearing to be the least fatigued.

MEMOIR.

Elmer W. Welsheimer was born near Lyndon, Ross County, Ohio, October 4, 1843. When he was quite young, his father moved to Rock Mills, this county. He had one brother, Oscar, who died at the age of 20 years, and three sisters, Mrs. Menerva Orr of this city, Sadie Lanum now a matron at the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware, Ohio, and Mrs. Olivia Brakefield, who departed this life about six years ago. He was married to Miss Sadie Zimmerman in 1866, who still survives him.

Three children were born to this union, Ott O. Welsheimer of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. John Ging and Mrs. Wm. Carlough, of this city, who were at the bedside with the grief-stricken wife when the final summons came for him to meet his Captain in the great beyond.

His death was undoubtedly hastened by a complication of troubles, their cause dating back to the three years of hardships endured, and the severe wounds he received on the battle fields of the Civil War.

In November, 1861, when but 18 years old, he enlisted in Company G, 73rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He was in many hard fought battles, serving both eastern and western armies.

He was wounded at the second battle of Bull Run, shot through wrist, and at the battle of Lookout Valley he was again severely wounded, necessitating the amputation of his left leg.

He was in civil life a genial, kind hearted man, honored and respected by all, a very efficient and public servant, serving fifteen years as Clerk of Courts and four years as County Treasurer.

He was a kind and devoted husband, an indulgent father, and leaves behind him an unblemished record as an honest man and a gallant soldier.

When the Angel of Death summoned Elmer W. Welsheimer, every one in his home city and county lost a true friend.

They are grief stricken and every class mourns, his comrades mourn for one whose place cannot be filled.

"Had he but known his passing would bring grief to hundreds, who would miss his cherry smile."

"I'm sure he would have begged for longer leave."

To stay amongst us a little while.

He would have paused could he have known our pain.

Ere yet his spirit started on journeying.

Just long enough to say, "Be glad again."

Twill soon be light, I'll see you in the morning."

At the close of his life of more than the allotted three score years and ten, soldier, generous citizen, kind friend to all, may be written of him if ever of any mortal man:

"Well done, enter and receive thy reward."

How good the thought that thou and I had camped awhile along life's trail this side the mist:

We tarried where the shades were cool Upon the ridge above the vale This side the mist.

'Twas good to hear thy friendly chat On things that made our lives worth while This side the mist.

'Twas good to see thy kindly face When lighted up by a friendly smile This side the mist.

The Campfire's embers now are dead, And thou hast journeyed on Beyond the mist;

Thou knowest many secrets now We oft had pondered hard upon This side the mist.

The trail is rough at times and long, Yet all must journey—tear or smile Beyond the mist,

Where rest awaits the traveler tired, And friends shall meet in a little while Beyond the mist.

Thou feared no terrors of the trail, As thou journeyed on to the further side Beyond the mist;

But with thy face straight to the front, Thou walked as if well satisfied Into the mist.

Some day we'll know the things thou learned

When we broke camp and thou went on

Beyond the mist;

We'll leave the outfit by the trail, And hope to reach where thou hast gone

Beyond the mist."

ORDER YOUR FERTILIZERS NOW

The Office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, has just issued the following announcement:

"Farmers are urged by the United States Department of Agriculture to place orders at once for fertilizer needed for fall wheat. It is very important, according to W. W. Mein, Assistant of the Secretary of Agriculture in charge of the licensing of fertilizer concerns under the Food Control Act, that dealers and manufacturers know farmers' needs as soon as possible, so that orders can be combined and car space used to the best advantage. Transportation difficulties require that freight cars be loaded to their rated capacity. Delay in ordering, it is said, may result in a repetition of last spring's experience when many farmers failed to receive their mixed fertilizer and acid phosphate until after planting time."

Orders can be filled in the "ACORN" or other leading brands of Williams & Clark's Fertilizers and delivered at your nearest station if you

GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS IS EXECUTED

(American Press)
Paris, Aug. 5.—Three Russian grand dukes, one of whom seems to be Nicholas Nikolaevitch, former commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, have been executed by the Bolsheviks, according to Moscow advices received at Munich.
Former Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaevitch was reported June 3, 1917, to have been arrested at Tiflis, and early in the present year his death was reported in German newspapers. These reports, however, were not confirmed, and were later denied by reports from Russia. The former grand duke was reported to have been arrested at Moscow July 14. Late in July an Amsterdam dispatch stated that four grand dukes had been seized at Yekaterinburg by members of an unidentified band. The names of these grand dukes were Igor, Constantine, Ivan Constantinovich and Serge Michaelovitch.

"BADE" ADAMS

Babe Adams, veteran pitcher, who won a world's championship for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1909, has rejoined the club. Adams was released by the Pittsburgh club several years ago and drifted to the minors. This season he was the star pitcher of the American Association, winning fourteen games and losing only 3. The veteran is thirty-five years of age and is therefore above draft age.

DEFY SHELLS FOR MUSIC

Trying to carry off a piano on which the Huns were playing with a machine gun was an experience of two Y. M. C. A. secretaries and three Anzac orderlies, on the Australian sector in France recently.

Musie had such charms for this quintette that, after finding the heavy piano too ponderous to carry from the ruins of the "Y" hut, the five adventurers tried to remove a small upright, only to have it stick in the doorway.

Without waiting for the exit to be widened by the shells which were coming over the soldiers and Red Triangle men fled with a moving picture machine, just as the Boche began putting down shells in all seriousness.

THREASHERS SCARCE IN HIGHLAND COUNTY

A local man who made a trip through Highland county recently declares that a great many farmers have been unable to thresh in that county because no threshing machines were available for all the number of machines being inadequate to thresh all grain promptly.

The man suggests that inasmuch as many machines in Fayette county have finished their work here, that some assistance could be given the Highland countians who desire to thresh and are held back because machines are scarce.

HARVESTER TRUST WILL BE DISSOLVED

(American Press)

Washington, Aug. 5.—Under an agreement between the government and the International Harvester company, federal court decrees declaring the so-called harvester trust to be an unlawful combination and ordering its dissolution are to be carried into effect at once.

The company's appeal, pending in the supreme court since 1915, is to be dismissed under an agreement with the government and an order issued providing for the sale of certain machinery lines controlled by the company, together with its plants in Springfield, O., and Auburn, N. Y. The terms of the agreement were made public by the department of justice.

The harvester suit was instituted in Minnesota in 1912 by the government, which for the first time in the prosecution of alleged combinations in restraint of trade asked for the dissolution of a combination on the grounds mainly of size and inherent power. The case is the first of the more important anti-trust proceedings pending in the supreme court to be disposed of in this manner since this country entered the war.

Under the terms of the agreement the company will dispose of its harvesting machinery lines known under the trade names of "Osborne," "Champion" and "Milwaukee" together with all machinery and other equipment and its plants in Springfield, O., and Auburn, N. Y., where the first two lines are manufactured. Because of the country's financial condition due to the war, the government is inclined to be more lenient with the company and will give it until one year after peace has been declared to carry out the terms of the agreement. Should this not be done by that time, however, the property will be sold at auction.

Another term in the agreement provides that after Dec. 31, 1919, the company will not be permitted to have more than one representative in each city or town. In the event the terms of this agreement fail to meet the situation and restore competitive conditions in the harvesting and agricultural machinery trade, the government reserves the right, at the expiration of 18 months after the war, to "such further relief in the present case as may be necessary to that end."

CHILDREN'S GALA DAY

There should be 5000 children assembled in the great steel auditorium at the chautauqua Park, Greenfield, Ohio, on Monday, August 12 at 11 a. m. to at least witness the great sale even if they do not purchase one of the choice ponies to be sold at auction. Remember the free picture shows to all visitors. If ponies sell cheap you will get wonderful bargains. If they sell for a fair price you will be donating money to the Red Cross. Advt.

SPEEDER IS FINED DISREGARDED LAW

Because he was attempting to pass through the city with a total disregard for speed laws, L. A. Deger, of Dayton, was picked up by Motor Cop Murray, Sunday, and was given the usual fine for such offenses.

The man was running through the main streets at 30 miles per hour, but was quickly overhauled by the motor officer.

So far this season no strict attention has been given speed violations throughout the county, but invariably the auto parties passing through have observed the speed laws fairly well while in this city, although there have been many who apparently forgot the speed limits.

KULTUR.
You ask me what this "kultur" means, that's boomed by Pressian kings and queens? Well, slaying babes with submarines, that's kultur. I make a solemn pledge today, and later think it may not pay, whereat I throw the pledge away—that's kultur. I see the Red Cross banner fly above a shed where sick men lie; I bomb the shed, and they all die; that's kultur. I line myself with brutes and beasts; I give the vultures daily feasts. I burn down churches, hang the priests—that's kultur. At every hour to God I cry, I'm always pointing to the sky; in every act God I defy—that's kultur. I send my neighbor's sons to fight against the sacred cause of right; but mine are safe at home each night—that's kultur. Oh, think of all that's wrong and foul of sins that travel cheek by jowl, of kings who strut while subjects howl—that's kultur. And think of all the homes destroyed, the fair fields now an aching void, of those by treachery deceived—that's kultur. There is an evil fiend abroad that knows no conscience, truth or God; we go to strike it to the sod; it's kultur.
—By Walt Mason.

300,000 YANKS IN FIGHT ZONES

(American Press)

Washington, Aug. 5.—General March announced that General Pershing now had more than 1,000,000 men under his direct command "in his own area." Presumably he referred to the section of the front north of Verdun to the Swiss border, where American troops have been rapidly taking over the line from the French. The First army corps probably represents the mobile reserve to be contributed by General Pershing to the pooled reserve plan and is counted as a part of the million men.

There are eight divisions of Americans, in the neighborhood of 300,000 men, now in the fighting zone where the great battle is going forward, and General March pointed out that General Liggett had set his headquarters in the center of the line where his six divisions are assembled, together with two additional divisions. General Liggett is the first American officer to command a wide section of the front.

FORD ASSEMBLING PLANT IS CLOSED

There is every reason to believe that from now onward there will be a shortage in Ford automobiles, as many of the assembling plants of the firm, including that in Columbus, have been closed down, presumably until after the war. The plant at Cincinnati, however, continues in operation. The Ford Company is now producing more trucks than ever before and it is expected that the production of automobiles during the remainder of the war will be comparatively light.

EXPECT LIGHT VOTE

(American Press)

Columbus, Aug. 5.—Political leaders here believe that only a small percentage of the voting population of Ohio will be represented at the polls at the state primary election next week. They predict a total vote as low in some cases as 20 per cent, which would mean that the state tickets will be determined by not more than 220,000 voters out of the more than 1,000,000 in the state. Not many more than 100,000 voters of each party may participate in making up its ballot.

Probably the actual vote cast will be larger than the forecasts given above, but still it will be far from being as representative as it should be. A great many voters are with the colors; exciting international matters absorb public interest, and the industries and business of the state, driven at high speed with reduced forces, draw public interest away from political issues.
